Thank you for your interest in BitGive. We have put together some Frequently Asked Questions (and answers) below.

Have questions about BitGive or our projects?

We appreciate your interest. We have all our public information available on our website and will provide updated information as it is available. BitGive is a registered U.S. 501(c)(3) non-profit organization (EIN: 46-3362563).

Wish to support BitGive?

We appreciate your support! You can find ways to contribute towards our mission here. Our current focus is GiveTrack, a donation tracking platform leveraging Blockchain technology for financial transparency and project results in real time.

Are you a charitable organization seeking support from BitGive?

We want to work with you too! However, we appreciate your understanding that our organization is still building capacity to support charitable projects. We are currently focusing our support on select charitable projects that are chosen by BitGive without solicitation.

We are committed to providing GiveTrack and other tools and services that will eventually allow us to work with numerous organizations at once. Organizations can sign up on the GiveTrack site by clicking on the red “Start a Project” button on the top right and walking through our on-boarding process.

We do not provide support to individuals and will not respond to funding requests from individuals.

Are you a nonprofit looking to accept bitcoin donations through a payment processor?

Awesome! Welcome to 21st century philanthropy! You will need to go through a payment processor to accept and convert bitcoin into USD or other fiat currencies. More information is available on our website here. Alternatively, you can post projects on GiveTrack for fundraising.

Inquiring about having BitGive at your event?

We are grateful for the interest in our work and appreciate being invited to many events; however, we appreciate your understanding that our organization is hyper focused on our mission and delivering results. As a result, we are very selective about participating in conferences and promotional events. Typically, events provide us with a speaking stipend, travel, and accommodation. Of course we will gladly accept additional contributions. Please send event inquiries to press@bitgivefoundation.org with all the relevant information.

Are you Press or a student with questions for an article or research effort?
